Extension of Sales Tax to Services May Be Repealed

State Representative Charles (Chuck) Honey of Prescott had the ear of the entire state last week when he announced that if a special session of the General Assembly were called he would make an effort to include in its call a bill to repeal the 1971 act extending the sales tax to services.

One example of the outrageous unfairness of putting a sales tax against services is the case of shoe repair. You pay 3 per cent tax when purchasing the shoes new, then an additional 3 per cent on every set of repairs.

Obviously this is not a sales tax—it's a transaction tax, 3 per cent every time the merchandise is handled by a dealer. The same is true of automobile repairs and other common services.

In 1934 when I was researching for a possible sales tax enactment in Arkansas—the enactment came in 1935—I published a detailed warning against the very abuse that we have fallen into today. I reported:

The first sales tax in history was enacted in Spain. It was fair enough to begin with, being confined to actual goods, not services. But soon enough it developed into a transaction tax—taxing an article every time it changed hands, and taxing services.

Eventually the Spanish sales tax mounted as high as 60 per cent of the original cost of an article. The people rose in angry revolt—and the result was that the sales tax in its entirety was killed.

Arkansas is headed in the same direction as medieval Spain—an abuse to be corrected if humanly possible.

Fair Weather in Arkansas Short-Lived

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fair weather in Arkansas will be short-lived.

Rain was reported in all sections of the state Sunday before skies began to clear. Fair skies are expected tonight, but cloudiness should increase Tuesday as a storm system develops over the central and southern Rockies.

Precipitation may begin in the southwest portion of the state Tuesday night and spread over the state Wednesday.

A few counties in the extreme southeast portion of the state were placed under a severe thunderstorm watch Sunday afternoon. Small hail was reported at Pine Bluff and Little Rock.

Colder temperatures are forecast tonight with lows in the upper 20s northwest to the mid 30s southeast. Highs today should be in the upper 40s and 50s with highs Tuesday mostly in the 40s.

YELLEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The body of Wallace Bronson, 49, of Grandview, Mo., was recovered from Bull Shoals Lake near here Sunday afternoon.

Sheriff Fred Bearden of Marion County said that a search had been on for Bronson's body following a boating accident Friday afternoon.

Bearden said that Bronson had been fishing with three other Missouri residents when a storm capsized their boat. He said the other three managed to hold onto the boat and make it safely to shore.

BUT WILL IT EVER FLY? Lethal-looking aircraft is a mockup, largely of wood, of the controversial B-1, proposed new bomber the Air Force seeks to develop as a defense mainstay replacing the B-52. The mockup will be used in engineering testing for construction by North American Rockwell Corp. of three prototype planes, under a $1.1 billion contract, for flight testing. Opponents seek to block the new manned bomber as already obsolete in the era of missiles.

Jordan Prime Minister Assassinated in Egypt

AMMAN Jordan (AP) — More turmoil was day for Jordan following the assassination of Prime Minister Wasfi Tell by vengeful Palestinians.

Tell, unrelenting 51-year-old foe of the Palestinian guerrillas, was shot Sunday at the entrance to the Sheraton Hotel in Cairo. Jordan's foreign minister, Abdullah cSalah, was grazed in the leg, and an Egyptian security officer and one of the gunmen also were wounded.

Egyptian authorities arrested four Palestinians with Syrian passports and said three of them admitted shooting Tell.

Egypt's official Middle East News Agency said one of the three, Monzie Khalifa, told interrogators the assassination plan was formulated in Beirut by the Black September organization, a movement formed to avenge the guerrillas killed in the Jordanian army's crackdown in September 1970.

King Hussein broadcast an appeal for unity among Jordan's 2.2 million population, two-thirds off it Palestinian. He called Tell a "true soldier who fought to the last breath of his life for Jordan's dignity, peace, security and progress." But here was widespread reaction among the Palestinians at the murder of a man they considered one of their chief foes.

The Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine, whose hijacking of three airliners to Jordan led to the 1970 civil war, said Tell's death was "a warning to everyone who is an enemy of our nation."

Palestinian students, women and workers' groups said they sent a cable to Egyptian President Anwar Sadat appealing for the release of the three assassins "who performed a national duty by killing one of the traitors who plotted against our people."

Jordanian Arabs under Israeli occupation expressed fear that more warfare is imminent between the guerrillas and the Jordanian army.

Dov Yinon, the Israeli state radio's Arab affairs expert, said Hussein may decide to avenge Tell's death with a new anti-Palestinian onslaught, and commented: "The Palestinians have done it again. They've thrown the entire Arab world into distress with one extreme act."

But another Israeli analyst, Amnon Kepeliuk, said perhaps the assassination would be regarded by both sides as a settling of accounts.

India Launches Big Offense in 4 Areas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Pakistan charged India with launching another big offensive on four fronts around the border of East Pakistan, but India admitted only one crossing by its forces and claimed they acted in self defense.

A Pakistani army spokesman in Dacca reported Sunday that heavy fighting was raging on East Pakistan's western border near Jessore, in the east near Comilla, in the northeast at Sylhet and in the north at Dinajpur.

Two Indian divisions, three armored regiments and several artillery units were involved, he said, adding that two Indian mountain brigades in the Dinajpur district had air support.

Pakistani military officials earlier reported beating back five Indian assaults and said 43 Indian soldiers, three Pakistani troops and 20 civilians were killed.

The Indians said they moved into East Pakistan in a "fresh defensive action" after renewed shelling Saturday and Sunday of Indian border regions around Balurghat, the district headquarters of west Dinajpur district.

Associated Press correspondent Dennis Neeld reported from Balurghat that Pakistani guns shelled a crowded market place there Sunday, killing six civilians and wounding 14. Neeld said Indian forces destroyed three Pakistani tanks in the ensuing battle.

Indian troops had reported crossing the border Thursday in the same area, about 200 miles north of Calcutta, following another alleged Pakistani artillery attack. The Indians also admitted entering the eastern province the previous Sunday to repulse a threatened tank assault.

The three border crossings were made under orders approved by Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi permitting troops to move into East Pakistan in "self defense," Indian officials said.

The Indians claim all the other attacks against Pakistani troops have been made by East Bengali independence fighters calling themselves the Mukhti Bahini, or East Pakistan Liberation army.

The Indian government radio reported heavy fighting today near Sylhet between the Mukhti Bahini and Pakistan's army. It said the rebels had advanced to within 12 miles of the town, which is 25 miles from the border.

Radio Pakistan also reported heavy fighting in the same area but said the battle was between the Indian and Pakistani troops.

Officials in Rawalpindi, the capital of West Pakistan, acknowledged for the first time Sunday that Bengali guerrillas are involved in the attacks.

One Dead, 2 Wounded in Separate Shootings

Two shootings in Hempstead County over the weekend left one person dead and two others wounded.

At Washington Saturday morning Shelby Atkins, 64, Negro male, died from a gunshot wound in the head. Paul Dudney was hospitalized with gunshot wounds in the arm, left wrist and right side.

The shooting occurred at Dudney's shop in Washington. Sheriff Henry Snyard would not give details pending a complete investigation. Atkins and Dudney apparently were the only two involved. Both were shot with a pistol.

About 2 p.m. Sunday at a joint on North Hazel Johnny Stinson, Negro, shot Henry Turner, also a Negro, in the hand following an argument over a $1 bill. City Officers Clark and Purdie said. The wound was not considered serious.

Officers charged Stinson with disturbing the peace and assault with a deadly weapon. Turner was charged with drunkenness and disturbing the peace.

Nixon Will Announce China Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, expected to announce a date for his China trip within 48 hours, is described as eager to ease East-West tensions—but not at the expense of old friendships.

Press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said a desire to have meaningful consultations with major allies prior to journeys to Peking and Moscow was a key reason for Nixon's announced intentions to meet during the next five weeks with leaders of Britain, France, West Germany, Japan and Canada.

Talking to a group of newsmen aboard Air Force One as the President flew here Sunday night from California, Ziegler said:

"The purpose of the consultations is to inform our allies about our views of the world and to inform them about what the President intends to accomplish The President wants to hear their views, and he's going to give his."

Another White House official, who declined to be identified, said Nixon was bound for Peking and Moscow "to relax tensions but not to sacrifice allied unity."

This source said the allied leaders would not be granted "an absolute veto" over any initiatives Nixon may take in the Communist capitals. "But," he added, "if there are grave concerns, they will be taken into consideration."

Ignoring reports that hitches have developed, Ziegler continued to promise that a date for the President's Peking trip will be announced within 48 hours.

There have been several published and broadcast reports suggesting the historic mission might be postponed or canceled.

Ziegler confirmed during the flight that Nixon will meet here in December with Canadian Prime Minister Pierre Elliot Trudeau.

Motion Denied in Dennis Turner Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The State Supreme Court, for the second time, upheld today the Hempstead Circuit Court in the case of Dennis Turner charged with robbery.

The ruling denied a motion by Turner to dismiss an indictment that charged him with the robbery of Larry Wayne Yates.

It was the second such motion turned down by the high court.

Turner had been charged with murder in the death of Yates but had been acquitted when tried on the charge.

He contended that he was entitled to dismissal of the robbery indictment because he had been acquitted of the earlier charge, which alleged that Yates was murdered while Turner was attempting to perpetrate a robbery.

The state Supreme Court said that U.S. Supreme Court decisions cited by Turner in support of the motion did not apply to circumstances like those in Turner's case since Turner was charged with two separate crimes, rather than perpetrating the same crime at the same time on different people.

SAIGON (AP) — A big U.S. helicopter disappeared during a thunderstorm along the northern coast of South Vietnam, and 33 American troops were reported missing today.

The pilot radioed he had an emergency, then contact was lost.

A spokesman for the U.S. Command, Maj. Richard Gardner, said the destroyer Epperson was leading an extensive air and sea search.

Gardner said the CH47 Chinook helicopter carried a crew of five and 28 passengers, all from the U.S. 101st Airborne Division, which is now being withdrawn from the Vietnam war.

It was on a flight Sunday afternoon from Da Nang to Phu Bai, the headquarters of the division 50 miles north of Da Nang, Gardner said that 30 minutes after taking off, the pilot radioed he had an emergency.

The helicopter was believed to have taken a route over the South China sea instead of flying over land, Gardner said. At the time there were thunderstorms and low visibility, the command said.

It could be the worst U.S. helicopter disaster in nearly four years, since a CH53 crashed into a mountain on Jan. 8, 1968, killing all 41 Americans aboard.

The U.S. Command also reported the loss of three other helicopters and a fighter-bomber with three crewmen killed, three missing and six wounded. This raised to 8,033 the total number of U.S. aircraft reported lost in the war.

The F4 Phantom jet fighter-bomber crashed in the lower panhandle of Laos last Tuesday, and its two pilots are listed as missing. An HH53 Super Jolly Green Giant helicopter crashed Thursday in the Nha Be River 12 miles southeast of Saigon during bad weather. Three crewmen were killed, two were injured and one is missing, a spokesman said.

The other two helicopters, both OH6 light observation craft, were shot down over the weekend during heavy fighting in South Vietnam's central highlands, and four crewmen were wounded.

The allied commands reported 86 North Vietnamese troops killed in the fighting northwest of Kontum, where a major enemy border buildup is reported. More than half of these were credited to U.S. helicopter gunships and American and South Vietnamese bombers.

High School Leaders Favor Booze Over Pot

By WILLIAM J. WAUGH
AP Education Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A survey of high school student leaders indicates the young people are substituting booze for pot, like Democrats and think mom and pop are on target with discipline.

As for premarital sexual experience, it was maybe yes, maybe no, with 35 per cent of the respondents saying absolutely no, 15 per cent ducking the question and 50 per cent saying yes under a variety of conditions.

The survey, conducted for the Merit Publishing Co., Northfield, Ill., consisted of 23,000 replies from students in 18,000 of the nation's 23,000 public, private and parochial high schools. The publishing company said that the replies were not a reflection of today's average student but of the "opinions of student leaders and high-achievers."

Ninety-six per cent of the students surveyed go on to college and nearly 96 per cent have better than a B-grade average.

YOUTH BEAT

The National Report on What's Happening

We've Got a Winner!

By ERNESTINE GUGLIELMO
A DO-IT-YOURSELF YOUTH GROUP—Keep the letters coming in. There are a lot of young people out there who have done something worthwhile for themselves and their communities. And we're starting to choose winners for our NEA-Caravella Take Time to Get Involved Contest.

The first merit winner is the Heritage Homes Youth Project from San Diego, Calif.

Here's what they did: They had the same problem which many young people around the country complain about—a small, socially isolated community which offered nothing in the way of entertainment for young people. There are no theaters and few recreational facilities. Judith Purdy wrote us "that the crime rate and drug abuse rate are very high. And no wonder, with nothing to do, the kids just hung around on street corners."

But Bobby Ruiz, a local youth, organized the young people from Heritage Homes to do something about their problems. The project began in October, 1970, and one of the first things they did was to create their own entertainment. They planned a Halloween concert and raised the money for it from car washes and other services. Judith says it was the first Halloween in many years where "incidents between teen-agers and younger children ceased to exist and vandalism was almost nil."

Then they went on to other problems. They have attempted to set up mental health facilities with professional help from University of California at San Diego Center. Now they are trying to set up a permanent "hot line" for young people with drug problems. Their next job will be to get a bus to provide a means of transportation outside their community. They've already sponsored camping trips and visits to beaches. The group raises the money themselves by doing special work within the community.

Most important, they meet a few nights a week to discuss problems. It's a place to bring their questions and often find the answers or a place just to sit and rap with pollution were three things students were proud of, and their top priorities included ending the Southeast Asian war, eliminating pollution and the continuing war on poverty.

Return of the '40s

Haven't we met before? Clingy knits, the return of the '40s—was it on the late, late show. Ruth Manchester captures it all for the young in a clingy knit dress with leg-o-mutton sleeves and a big flower at the waist (left). Elinor Gay helps women express their feminine mystique by designing great knits such as the dress (right) in "women's" sizes. Both these holiday fashions are in black Enkaloure nylon.

Politically, 76 per cent of the young leaders said they believed political change could be brought about within the established system.

In several sample ballots, pitting President Nixon against Senators Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., George McGovern, D-S.D., and Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, the President beat out Humphrey 44 per cent to 38 per cent. Muskie scored highest over the President 57 per cent to 28 per cent.

Although well over 90 per cent said they had never used the hard drugs and 76 per cent had not used marijuana, 76 per cent said all the drugs were readily available.

Alcohol gets more attention from this student segment, the survey showed. Only 34 per cent of the students said they never drank beer, 26 per cent had tried wine and 39 per cent had shunned hard liquor. Usage of all three ranged from once or twice to daily, although there were no daily hard liquor drinkers. Parents generally got passing grades.

In a remote corner of the Himalayas, newcomers may become dizzy eating food prepared in a local cooking oil pressed out of wild marijuana.

THE HEIGHT OF TACTLESSNESS

I was recently invited to a wedding and sent the bride and groom a lovely wool blanket. We are more business acquaintances than close friends.

Today the blanket was returned to me with a note from the girl saying she uses only electric blankets, but thanks anyway.

The name of the store where I purchased it was clearly on the box. Inasmuch as she could have exchanged my gift for another, but chose not to, am I obligated to buy her another present? — A.B.

Absolutely not!
Such tactlessness deserves a write-off in your books. I wouldn't even send them a Christmas card! —H.

Dear Helen:
In your letters from wives about "Other Women," every wife seems to think the O.W. is always single and looking for a husband — hers.

Well, I am a married "other woman" and my "other man" is also married. Our relationship is very special. He is a wonderful person and I think the world of him, but I wouldn't leave my husband for him, nor would he leave his wife for me—though he loves me deeply.

Neither of us feels ashamed, or guilty. Our mates are happy with us—and we're able to make our home lives better since we have the added excitement of knowing we are wanted "outside."

Is there anything so wrong with this? —HAPPY O.W.

Dear Happy:
Don't ask me—ask your (legal) mates. —H.

Dear Helen:
What's with these people who get so uptight because women want to change their formal title from "Mrs." or "Miss" to "Ms."? Why must we be classified as married or single when all men are "Mr." no matter what their marital status?

Until my husband signs himself "M-Mr." (for "Married Mister") I'll be—MS, SANDRA JONES-SMITH, NOT MRS. TOM SMITH.

P.S. Not my real name.

Dear Sandra:
You'll always find people who feel threatened by change—but you'll also find a lot of us who think "Ms." is a happy solution. For many years I've been using "Ms." when I wasn't sure whether my business correspondent was a married or single career girl.

Here's a quote from a newspaper editor: "We doubt that there is a newspaper in the land that would not readily adopt the 'Ms.' system, if we could get away with it. It is forever a pain in the journalist's side trying to find out whether Mary Jones, involved in a wreck or some such, is Miss or Mrs. Thus, when time and other factors prevent a check, we've had to resort to such absurd double talk as 'The Jones woman was given a citation,' or 'the Jones car's driver was cited,' which not only is awkward but looks as if we are bordering on illiteracy."

Our editor carries equality one step further. He suggests that the formal title "Mrs. John Jones" (on which most newspapers insist) be abandoned in favor of Mary Jones (No Mrs., Miss, or Ms.) and, in second reference, she could simply be referred to as "Jones." Males have no "Mr." in front of their names, he says. Why then are women so special—on the printed page?

Somehow I don't think non-liberated women will go for this suggestion. —H.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — CBS's weekly "60 Minutes" and NBC's monthly "Chronolog" are network television's only surviving actuality programs on a regular schedule. Comparisons are inevitable, particularly since both use a "magazine format"—the television term for a single program containing an assortment of unrelated features.

"60 Minutes," which has been kicked around the schedule like a pigskin during the height of the football season, was back in its regular late Sunday afternoon spot this week with a lively hour. There was a second installment in its expose of techniques of the automotive repair gyps, a sketch of Treasury Secretary John B. Connally, and an interview with a clergyman who had recently visited Red China, the weakest item in the hour.

"Chronolog," which goes on for two hours in the course of its monthly appearance, has a tendency to be more ponderous and to linger too long on segments it considers important or unusual. On Friday night the program devoted much time to the conflict in Pakistan, which was helpful, and to showing the shocking suffering among refugees. Film taken in refugee camps showed people starving, the sick, and the dead.

There was also film of a university experiment on the psychology of imprisonment, with student volunteers playing the part of prisoners and guards. Interviews made later, much more than the pictures taken by concealed cameras, indicated that some of the "guards" became bullies; some "prisoners" were filled with hate. Both groups knew the environment was simulated.

The experiment probably was significant. As a visual feature, however, it failed to make points.

Neither series can be counted as a successful commercial television project. Both inevitably are somewhere near the bottom of the ratings no matter how much effort and talent are invested in them. The mass public which watches television demonstrates consistently that it seeks simple entertainment from its sets.

ABC's Sunday night movie was a new made-for-TV feature, a particularly well-done science fiction thriller, "Earth II." The story, set in a new nation established in space, centered on a space accident involving a nuclear warhead. It was no better or no worse than all those bomb-squad stories where the lethal weapon is disarmed in the nick of time.

The stars of this two-hour show were the special effects, the expanse and drama of space, and the simulation of machines that men take into the void. They and camera tricks made the efforts of earlier television shows like "Star Trek" and "Lost in Space" seem like crude cartoons.

You are driving - you see a long line of traffic coming from the opposite direction following a truck? How could this lead to a head-on collision? How could you prevent the accident?

Namath Does Well But Not Well Enough

By BRUCE LOWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Veterans Day arrived a bit late for National Football League quarterbacks this year. Three of the walking wounded, field generals returning from summer skirmishes that had put them out of commission, joined the autumn of festivities Sunday.

Two of them won the battles but lost the wars. For the third, it was just the other way around.

Joe Namath, exploding onto the scene in New York, tossed three bombshells en route to a 359-yard aerial attack only to miss the mark in the last minute as the Jets bowed to the San Francisco 49ers 24-21.

And Bart Starr, coolly directing the Green Bay attack, watched as his troops committed tactical blunders that sent the Packers down to a 24-21 defeat the hands of the New Orleans Saints.

But Sonny Jurgensen, marching Washington into enemy territory, was knocked out of action and could only watch as Billy Kilmer barked the orders that carried the Redskins to a 20-13 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles.

In Sunday's other clashes, Baltimore walloped Oakland 37-14, Cleveland beat Houston 37-24, Denver defeated Pittsburgh 22-10, Cincinnati stomped San Diego 31-9, Minnesota smothered Atlanta 24-7, Buffalo topped New England 27-20 and St. Louis swatted the New York Giants 24-7.

In tonight's nationally televised ABC 9 p.m. EST game, the Chicago Bears invade Miami to face the American Conference East-leading Dolphins.

As 63,936 fans screamed their approval, Namath trotted in to replace Jets' starter Bob Davis, injured in the second quarter.

He proceeded to connect on 11 of 27 passes, including touchdowns of 57 and 20 yards to Rich Caster and a 22-yarder to Ed Bell. But with New York on San Francisco's 19 with only seconds remaining, his pass to Bell was intercepted in the end zone by Johnny Fuller.

"I don't feel I played well... I've got to improve my mental state because I didn't feel at ease," Namath said.

Vic Washington and John Brodie did most of the damage for the 49ers. Washington ran two yards for one touchdown and hauled in a 23-yard Brodie pass for another and the San Francisco quarterback scored the third from one yard out. But it was Bruce Gossett's 25-yard second-quarter field goal that made the difference as the 49ers retained the National

UCLA Ranked First in Basketball

Associated Press AP — UCLA received 11 first-place votes and 49 points from the panel of 38 sportswriters and sportscasters.

Wooden is accustomed to the No. 1 rating. His teams have won the national championship seven of the last eight seasons, including an unprecedented five consecutive titles through last season.

The inexperienced but talented Bruins are rated ahead of North Carolina, 521 points and seven first place votes; Southern California, 494 and six; Marquette, 487 and three; and Ohio State, 411 and six.

Wooden said he wouldn't name a No. 1 team but if he did, it would be one of several. "I think there's going to be a number of good teams."

"I certainly feel, as I look down the list, that those teams are all very fine."

North Carolina, Southern Cal, Marquette, Ohio State—they all have good groups of returning players, said Wooden. UCLA and sixth-ranked Maryland, he said, are unproven.

"The only ones that might surprise me, on the basis of freshman—now, sophomore—possibility, are UCLA and Maryland," Wooden said. Maryland will count on big Tom McMillen, a sophomore, and UCLA is building around sophomore Bill Walton, who is 6 feet, 10½ inches.

Long Beach State, ranked No. 8 behind Houston, should be higher," Wooden said. "I definitely feel they Long Beach will be higher than eighth at the end of the season."

A good big man has the chance of dominating and determining how good a team is going to be," said Wooden, whose big men of the past have included Lew Alcindor, now known as Kareem Jabbar, and Sidney Wicks.

The Bruins' 29-1 last season, open their season Friday night against The Citadel with two—perhaps three—sophomores in the starting lineup, said Wooden. "I and in his 24th season at UCLA."

Besides 6-foot-11 Bibby at one guard spot and Walton at center, Wooden plans to open with Larry Farmer, 6-5 junior, and Keith Wilkes, 6-6 sophomore, at the forward spots.

The other guard spot "is still wide open," Wooden said, between Greg Lee, a 6-4½ sophomore, and Tommy Curtis, a 6-4 junior.

Bobcats Win From Nashville

By BILL MOORE
Star Sportswriter

Hope's Bobcats met and defeated a Nashville Scrapper comeback try Friday night as they whipped the Scrappers, 45-40, to boost their seasonal record to a perfect 2-0, slate.

After grabbing a nine point lead in the last period, Hope saw that lead chopped to just four points with a little over a minute left in the game, but using some clutch free throw shooting, the Cats stayed ahead and forced the Scrappers into hurried shooting and foul trouble.

Although the Bobcats received the first quarter upoff, they couldn't get to a score, and in little time Nashville had jumped to a quick, 4-0, margin with only two minutes played. However, using the shooting of Steve Harris, Buddy Ingram, and Jimmy Smith, with some fine rebounding by Bill Rowland, the Cats began to move and after fighting back to a 10-7, lead, Hope had to settle for a 10 all tie moving into the second period of play.

Again the Cats pulled down the upoff, and five quick points, two field goals by Ingram and free throw by Rowland, put Hope into a 15-10 margin with 5:33 left in the half. Unfortunately for Hope through, the tide turned as the Bobcats couldn't score again after Rowland put them ahead, 18-12 with 4:01 left in the half, until Briggs hit both ends of a two shot situation from the line with only 12 seconds left in the half.

By that time though, Nashville had pulled back up and the Bobcats went to the dressing room at halftime with a narrow 20-19 lead.

Both teams back for the second half of play, Hope started off quickly on two field goals by David Briggs, but then slipped a little as the Scrappers pulled to a 24 all tie on a free throw by Charles Goza with 4:26 left in the period.

Now out scoring the Scrappers, 2-1, in a minute and a half, the Cats took a 32-25, lead then later moved into the final period of play with a 34-27, margin after Ingram and Goza each hit a field goal for their respective team.

Using the shots from Ingram and Briggs, the Cats kept their lead as they even stretched it some to nine points with four minutes left in the game, but Nashville begin to hit a hot streak and with some pressing, narrowed the gap to four points, 43-39, with 1:44 left in the contest.

However, after a Bobcat timeout, Briggs came on to sink two charity shots with 35 seconds left for a 45-39 margin, and only Goza could put the roundball through the hoop for the Scrappers, on a free throw with 25 seconds left, as the Bobcats showed fighting spirit and determination to preserve a hard fought victory.

High Scorers for Hope were David Briggs with 18 points, Ingram netting 14, and Smith getting five, while some fine rebounding efforts were shown by Smith and Rowland.

Earlier the B-Bruins took a commanding halftime lead, more than doubled the score in the last half, but then had to hang on desperately to win, 36-32, in their first game of the season.

Alabama, Nebraska Going for the National Title

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Coach Bryant is a great coach and a good friend of mine," Nebraska's Bob Devaney was saying last Thursday following the Cornhuskers' 35-31 victory over Oklahoma, but he's given me a lot of trouble in the ball field."

We can start thinking about Nebraska now," Bear Bryant said Saturday after Alabama's 31-7 trouncing of previously unbeaten Auburn.

Devaney and Bryant will meet in a bowl game for the third time on the night of Jan. 1 in the Orange Bowl and the winner is likely to be college football's national champion, a position held by Nebraska since a 17-12 Orange Bowl triumph over Louisiana State last January.

Last week, Nebraska was ranked first and Alabama third in The Associated Press poll, but the Crimson Tide undoubtedly will move up to second, with Oklahoma slipping a bit, Alabama and Bryant defeated Nebraska and Devaney 39-28 in the 1966 Orange Bowl and 34-7 in the 1967 Sugar Bowl.

Devaney watched the Alabama wrecking crew demolish Auburn on television and said the Tide looked "very powerful," adding:

"I think the pressure on this Orange Bowl will be very similar to the Oklahoma buildup."

Like Oklahoma, Alabama runs from a Wishbone offense and Devaney said: "They're very similar, but I think the Alabama offensive line is a little bigger than Oklahoma. Alabama is a real well-balanced team."

Alabama's walloping of Auburn was the featured attraction of college football's final big weekend, although five games remain to be played next Saturday—Nebraska at Hawaii, Oklahoma at Oklahoma State, Penn State at Tennessee, Syracuse at Miami, Fla. and North Texas State at San Diego State.

Among the winners were four bowl rivals. Ninth-ranked Arizona State blanked Arizona 31-0 and the Sun Devils' Fiesta Bowl opponent, Florida State, trimmed Pitt 31-13. Louisiana State, No. 10, whipped Tulane 36-7 while Iowa State, which faces the Tigers in the Sun Bowl, outscored San Diego State 48-31.

Tennessee, rated 11th, scored all its points in the final period to turn back Vanderbilt 19-7 and take an 8-2 record into next Saturday's nationally televised windup with Penn State. And No. 16 Houston prepped for the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl by routing Utah 42-16.

Elsewhere, Army edged Navy 24-23, John Reeves smashed Jim Plunkett's career pass yardage record in Florida's wild 45-16 drubbing of state rival Miami, Boston College downed Holy Cross 21-7 to finish 9-2 and uninvited, Baylor lost to Rice 23-0 and Coach Bill Beall lost his job and Hawaii stunned New Mexico 28-21.

The Pacific Coast Athletic Association voted to send San Jose State Long Beach State to oppose Memphis State in the Pasadena Bowl following the Spartans' 55-10 rout of UC-Santa Barbara although the 49ers bowed to Texas-El Paso 38-32.

A-Tech Advances in the NAIA Playoff

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Northern State College of Aberdeen, S.D. made a fatal mistake Saturday in the NAIA playoffs. The Wolves attempted to cover Arkansas Tech split end Rick Thone with one man.

Thone caught eight passes for 184 yards and two touchdowns as the Wonder Boys blanked the Wolves 24-0 and advanced to the finals of the playoffs against Livingston, Ala. State. Tech is 12-0 for the season; Livingston is 9-1.

"I could have told them that nobody can cover Thone with one man and get away with it," said Tech Coach Don Dempsey.

The championship game will be played Dec. 11 at Birmingham, Ala. Livingston advanced to the title game by beating West Liberty, W. Va., 25-2 Friday night.

Thone's first touchdown came after Rick Gray recovered a fumble at the Wolves' 18. On first down, Phil Fisher fired to Thone who made a falling catch in the end zone with 10:27 left in the first period. Less than three minutes later, Thone hauled in a 43-yard toss from Fisher to give Tech a 14-0 lead.

Fisher, who threw for more than 1,200 yards during the regular season, completed nine of 16 Saturday for 192 yards. He and Thone were unanimous picks for the game's most valuable lineman and back.

Rick Andrejewski, the Wolves' quarterback, threw 22 times and completed only three for 25 yards.

Craig Williams' 26-yard field goal with 1:15 left in the first half gave Tech a 17-0 lead.

In the second half, the Wonder Boys turned to their ball control I-formation. Larry Brown helped keep the ball away from the Wolves, gaining 107 yards on 24 carries.

Brown scored Tech's final touchdown on a four-yard run in the fourth quarter.

The Wolves reached scoring territory on four occasions, but each time Tech responded.

"We did what I'd call a good workmanlike job, especially with our defense," Dempsey said.

Irwin Wins Heritage Golf Meet

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — "Winning is everything. That's what athletics is all about."

Young Hale Irwin was holding forth Sunday after scoring his first pro victory. He had just beaten a stellar field that included Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Lee Trevino to take the Heritage Golf Classic.

"If a person hasn't tasted victory and defeat, or maybe I should say defeat and victory in that order, they just don't know what it's all about."

"I've been close enough to win before and didn't, so I know."

Irwin, a one-time football star at Colorado and a former national collegiate golf champion, admitted that the memory of an 18th-hole collapse at the Los Angeles Open almost two years ago haunted him as he came to the final hole on the tough Harbour Town Golf Links with a one stroke lead. He bogeyed the 18th at Los Angeles to fall into a tie with Billy Casper and lost in a playoff.

"I told myself if I ever got in that position again, I wouldn't do the same thing again—and I didn't."

Irwin, made a crucial par on the 458-yard par four hole and preserved a one-stroke margin over Bob Lunn for the $22,000 first prize.

Irwin, a 26-year-old, 6-foot, 170 pounder with a soft and thoughtful manner of speaking, finished with a one-under-par 70 and a tournament record 279.

Lunn was next with a 70-280, tied with Nicklaus and Frank Beard tied for third at 281. Nicklaus, in position to win until he bogeyed the 17th hole when a gust of wind caught the ball in the air and caused him to miss the green, had a 70. Beard scored the best round of the cool, sunny day with a solid, four-under-par 67.

Palmer, just three strokes off the pace going into the final round, took a double bogey six on the first hole and finished with a 74 and fifth place at 286.

Trevino, the season's leading money winner and player of the year, had a final 69 for 290.

Trevino retained the top money spot with a record $229,553.

Lamar Defeats ASU, Earns Place in SLC

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—Lamar University earned a share of the Southland Conference championship Saturday night by whipping defending champion Arkansas State University 24-13.

Lamar, Trinity and Louisiana Tech tied for the SLC title with 4-1 conference records.

ASU, coming off a national championship in 1970, finished the season with a 4-4-1 record.

Patrick Gibbs intercepted two James Hamilton passes to set up Lamar touchdowns as the Cardinals jumped off to a 14-0 lead. Gibbs' first interception gave Lamar possession at the Indians' 26. Two plays later, Mike Drake crashed 22 yards for the score.

Lamar took over at ASU's 15 after Gibbs' second interception. Doug Matthews went over from two yards out with 13:02 left in the second period.

Freshman quarterback James Flynn then relieved Hamilton and hit 10 of 20 for 186 yards.

A 28-yard pass from Flynn to Tom Johnson left the Indians down 14-7 at the half.

A three-yard scoring run by Matthews and Matthews' field goal gave the Cardinals a 24-7 lead late in the third period.

Coaches Wanted at Two SW Conference Schools

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

HELP WANTED: Bright, articulate, ambitious molder of winning football teams. No pension plan because of impatient alumni, but a king's ransom for a championship.

That's the sign hanging out at Baylor and Texas A&M following a hectic Southwest Conference football season which saw Texas capture its fourth consecutive title and a bid to the Cotton Bowl against Penn State.

Baylor sacked Bill Beall Saturday during the Rice game when the Owls won 23-6.

Beall finished with a 3-27 record in his three-year stint and said he would not consider leaving the coaching profession after 17 years.

"I want to go back to Waco and reflect and not jump into something I might be sorry for later," Beall said after the Rice game.

Baylor Athletic Director Jack Patterson said he had yet to talk with any coaches in a search for a replacement but added: "We've got information on six or seven that we might be interested in."

The list included Iowa State Coach Johnny Majors, who has guided Iowa State to its most successful season in 11 years.

Majors has denied he has talked with Baylor and added he would consider no coaching offers until after the Dec. 18 Sun Bowl game against Louisiana State.

Charlie McClendon, of LSU, has been mentioned as a possible replacement for Gene Stallings, who was fired Thanksgiving Day after Texas routed the Aggies 39-14.

The 1971 SWC football season was full of surprises. Texas, of course, was picked to win the championship but the way the Longhorns did it was most surprising. The Hurts lost to Arkansas but still prevailed as the Razorbacks stumbled over A&M and Rice.

Arkansas got a consolation prize for its second-place finish in the Liberty Bowl date against Tennessee on Dec. 31, after prize time national television.

Texas Tech picked fourth in pre-season polls, sank all the way to seventh place, just a notch ahead of Baylor.

Two Weeks After End to Freeze Everyone Puzzled

By STERLING F. GREEN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two weeks after the end of the wage-price freeze, many consumers and investors appear troubled by the thaw.

Some officials admit that the stock market's slump last week to the low point of the year could be blamed largely on public uncertainty whether the Phase 2 ceilings are tight enough to hold down inflation.

Businessmen also are concerned about the possible impact of price guidelines on the prospect for profits and by the persistent sluggishness of business recovery.

White House economists had expected an economic rebound, based on a revival of confidence that the wage-price spiral was under firm control. But the pattern of pay and price actions for a fortnight has suggested more flexibility than firmness.

Most of the Phase 2 rulings have been exemptions and exceptions to the established guidelines on wages and prices.

Business was alarmed at the broad implications of the Pay Board's first big wage case, in which it approved a scheduled coal wage increase of at least 15 per cent, nearly three times the 5.5-per-cent guideline for new increases.

On the price side, the officialy predicted upsurge of post-freeze markups is in progress. About 200 of the 1,500 biggest companies—those having $100 million or more annual sales and required to "prenotify" the Price Commission of planned increases—already have served such notice.

The commission had approved six by the weekend, including Chrysler Corp. and American Motors, for increases averaging 4.3 per cent. Only one request had been rejected.

Some of the pending boosts are painfully high.

Steepest of all, ironically, is that of the quasi-governmental U.S. Postal Service, which wants to raise rates on third-class mail—mostly advertising matter, a major business cost—by 23.9 per cent. The Postal Service said it would make the change today unless overruled by the Price Commission.

Officials predict the upsurge in prices will subside after the first of the year and that the price trend then will take a downward track toward President Nixon's goal: an inflation rate of 2 to 3 per cent by late 1972.

C. Jackson Grayson, chairman of the Price Commission, appealed during the weekend to the heads of the 1,500 big corporations to announce if they intend to hold the line on prices.

"In the newspapers these days," Grayson said, in telegrams to company presidents, "we read only of the companies that are requesting price increases. Many of these increases are justified by increased costs. We don't read of the many companies that have decided to hold prices down or of those that are actually reducing prices."

Still another source of business concern is the hazard facing Nixon's tax legislation, including the business-stimulating 7-per-cent investment tax credit and repeal of the auto excise tax.

The Democratic-controlled Senate has tacked on a rider that would enable each taxpayer to contribute $1 of his income tax to a presidential campaign fund by checking a box on his income tax return.

The proposal, seen by Republicans as an effort to bail out the financially strapped Democratic party, has led to speculation President Nixon might veto the whole tax package—even though it is a key part of his Phase 2 proposals.

A conference committee starts work today to iron out differences between the Senate and House versions of the tax relief program.

Meantime, the delay has locked up billions of dollars worth of new consumer buying power, plus additional billions of business investment in new job-creating plant equipment and machinery.

A third source of mounting business concern is the continuing dislocation of world currencies.

Hopes for a realignment of exchange rates by the year-end, which would raise the value of other currencies in relation to the dollar and thus make American prices more competitive, have been virtually abandoned.

Secretary of the Treasury John B. Connally, presiding at the meeting of finance ministers of the Group of Ten richest nations opening today in Rome, said last week the problem cannot be solved in any single meeting.

Connally has indicated the 10-per-cent import surcharge, a "temporary" protective measure invoked Aug. 15 as part of Nixon's new economic policy, may go on for months unless other countries revalue currencies and dismantle their trade barriers against U.S. goods.

Administration authorities have hinted recently that Washington would lift the surcharge in return for an exchange-rate deal with other trade and monetary problems to be worked out later.

The Morgan Guaranty Survey, published by New York's Morgan Guaranty Trust Company, said in its November issue that odds still favor a quickened American business tempo in 1972.

But more finger-crossing is in order now, the bank said, because:

"Instead of the improvement in psychology that had been hoped for—and counted on as a spur to consumer buying—apprehension is widespread.

"And despite the frequent repetition by U.S. officials that there will be no international trade war and despite implications that there is no great urgency in getting international differences resolved, skeptics picture a legion both here and abroad."

"Indian Joe" Guyon Dies at Age 79

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Joseph "Indian Joe" Guyon, professional football and baseball player and teammate of the famous Jim Thorpe at Carlisle, Pa., Academy is dead at the age of 79.

Guyon, a full-blooded Chippewa, died here Saturday in retirement.

His athletic career, following college football days at Georgia Tech under coach John Heisman, included stunts with the Canton, Ohio Bulldogs and the New York Giants.

He helped the Louisville Colonels win two American Association pennants during a subsequent try at baseball, but his career was cut short by a crash into a wall at a ball park in Indianapolis.

In 1966, Guyon was elected to the professional football hall of fame and last March he was inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame.

Lakers Blast Seattle for 14th Victory

Jerry West was held scoreless in the first period and Jim McMillan, Los Angeles' third leading scorer, did not play. So the Lakers won their 14th straight National Basketball Association game.

Pat Riley, subbing for McMillan who had the flu, scored 12 points in the first quarter and then West broke loose for 19 in the second as the Lakers blasted Seattle 138-121 Sunday night to close out their November schedule with a 14-0 record. The 14th straight also tied a record set by the club when it was in Minneapolis.

Los Angeles, 20-3 and 5½ games ahead of Golden State in the Pacific Division, built a 73-59 halftime lead and led by 33 points early in the fourth quarter.

Baseball Meets Begin with Player Drafts

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) — Any major league team willing to spend $25,000 could have Tony Conigliaro or Clete Boyer today as baseball launched its winter meetings with a draft of minor league talent.

Conigliaro, the one-time American League slugger, and Boyer, one of the majors' top third basemen until exiled to Hawaii for personality problems, were the most glamorous names available for the relatively cheap asking price.

Hundreds of other players, from raw recruits to much-traveled veterans, were also available to big league teams hoping to land help for bargain basement prices.

There were relief pitcher Dick Hall and catcher Clay Dalrymple of the American League champion Baltimore Orioles, for instance. And power hitting Danny Walton, a one-time minor league player of the year, too.

Joe Moeller, a long-time relief ace of the Los Angeles Dodgers; Bill Zepp, who won nine games for the Minnesota Twins two years ago, and former Minnesota outfielder Brant Alyea were among some of the other well-known baseball names in the hopper.

Of course, the clubs were also hoping to pick up a talented youngster or two, a diamond in the rough with the possibility of becoming a major league star.

Fort Smith Firing Ruled Unlawful

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court ruled today that the city of Fort Smith failed to demonstrate that it acted lawfully in the discharge of LaVerne Sanders as fire chief on Oct. 29, 1969.

The decision written by Associate Justice George Rose Smith came on an appeal Sanders had filed from a circuit court decision at Fort Smith. The circuit court decision had upheld the procedures followed in discharging Sanders.

Circuit Judge Henry M. Britt of Hot Springs, sitting as a special judge on the case, had ruled also that the Fort Smith Civil Service Commission should conduct a hearing to determine whether "good cause" existed for the discharge of Sanders. The city also appealed from this decision, but the Supreme Court did not address itself to the appeal filed by the city.

City Administrator Clifford V. Keheley notified Sanders of the dismissal in a letter in October 1969. The letter said, among other things, that Sanders had failed to carry out instructions to develop programs to train new firemen.

The city's Civil Service Commission, like the circuit court, ruled that proper procedures had been followed in dismissing Sanders.

Smith said, however, that Fort Smith, operating under the city administrator form of government created by Act 36 of 1967, actually was governed by a seven-member board of directors.

"Consequently the city administrator did not, acting alone, have lawful authority to discharge Sanders," Smith wrote.

The city contended that Sanders actually was discharged by

Delegates to Conference on Aging Urged to Ban Politics

By JOHN STOWELL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Delegates to the second White House Conference on Aging, urged not to launch political attacks but promised there will be no muzzling, today split into study groups to seek solutions for their problems.

Sixty-five meetings were scheduled simultaneously in downtown hotels. The recommendations will be pooled Thursday into what the chairman, Arthur S. Flemming, said hopes will be a "positive action program."

Eight congressmen handling legislation important to the elderly were invited to speak at separate luncheons for the 60 delegates.

Six national organizations of elderly joined Flemming Sunday night in attempting to discourage political rhetoric. "Any attempt to utilize the conference for partisan political advantage will be a violation of the spirit which has permeated the planning of the conference," said the statement by the American Association of Retired Persons and National Retired Teachers Association, National Association of Retired Federal Employees, National Caucus on the Black Aged, National Council on the Aging and National Council of Senior Citizens.

Flemming, 66-year-old former Health, Education and Welfare secretary who headed the 1961 conference, said there will be "no closed agendas for discussions" in meetings and added, "Minority views will be incorporated in reports whenever they are supported by at least 15 per cent of the voting group."

His no-muzzling pledge will be put to the test tonight at an Open Forum, which gives each delegate up to five minutes to discuss any area of aging except specific legislation.

Minority groups will have their own separate "special concerns" meetings Wednesday morning.

"I hope that we will not spend very much time at this conference dwelling on our own or other persons or groups sins of omission," Flemming said.

"Rather, I hope that our emphasis will be on making a personal commitment to action and to doing our best to per-

Recommend 24 Burglar Runs in Front of Camera

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — As a movie was being filmed in the early morning darkness outside a dry cleaner's, a man was inside trying to burglarize the place, police say.

But William Sperling, 38, tripped an alarm and ran outside in a panic, officer say.

There, in front of the cameras and klieg lights, Sperling ran into the crowd of spectators. He was captured, police say, still wearing a pair of socks on his hands to prevent fingerprints.

The picture being filmed Saturday was "The New Centurions," a movie about police.

Injured by Hunter, Girl Back in School

SALMON, Idaho (AP) — More than a year after she was critically injured by a hunter who mistook her for a deer, 7-year-old Karyn Prestwich returns to school today.

Karyn, with her left leg in a cast to her waist, propped her crutches on a snowmobile Thanksgiving Day and took a spin—by herself—around her home in North Fork, near Salmon in northeast Idaho.

The girl's plight attracted nationwide attention after she was struck in the abdomen by a high-powered rifle bullet Nov. 5, 1970, while waiting for a school bus. About $17,000 has been donated to pay for medical bills.

While the girl was spending seven months in the hospital, an anonymous donor gave $2,000.

A man from Washington state sent his coin collection, valued at $350. He said he worked 25 years on it.

A family in Georgia sent $500.

The man who mistakenly shot her, Roy Wells, 53, of Torrance, Calif., sent $500 and gave her a doll for her birthday. Wells, charged originally with assault with a deadly weapon, pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of negligent use of a firearm.

Wells rushed the girl to a hospital after the mishap. "The man said he thought I was a deer," Karyn said at the hospital.

She was wearing a brown coat.

"I just can't believe that people who don't even know her can care about her so very much," her mother said.

Karyn's father, Donald Prestwich, works for the U.S. Forest Service.

Karyn, who will be 8 on Dec. 21, has two sisters—Jenny, 2, and Carrie, 4.

During her convalescence, Karyn had a tutor in her home and in the hospital.

Today she will catch her old bus for a 35-mile ride to the Pioneer Elementary School in Salmon.

"She's just getting along great," her grandmother, Kay Hagel, said. "We're really pleased."

Police Check of High Officials Now Common

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers says it is now standard procedure for State Police to check on every person hired for a position of a sensitive or "trust" nature within state government.

Bumpers revealed the information in connection with another statement. He said the procedure of having persons who were being considered for top jobs checked without their knowledge had proved somewhat embarrassing. He said that times a neighbor would tell the person in question, "the police were out here asking me about you."

The governor said the policy had been changed three or four months ago. He says that now persons who are under consideration for a top echelon job are advised that a police check will be made on their background.

When informed a newsman wanted to do a story on the practice, Bumpers was leery, fearing "the people will think I am running a police state." He agreed to provide the information if he could see the story before it was printed.

"I have never asked a reporter to submit something to me in advance, but in this case I think the situation is so sensitive I would like to know what is being written," he said. Bumpers was shown a copy of the story in advance and voiced no objections.

James A. LaMonica, administrative aide to Bumpers, handles the "credit check" on the potential employees. He said checks have been made on 40 to 50 persons and that four or five had been rejected for employment as a result of the investigations.

The name of a candidate for a top government position is submitted to LaMonica who then turns it over to the State Police Criminal Investigation Division.

"We don't recommend that the person be hired or not be hired," LaMonica said. "We simply give the governor the report on the person and he or the department head makes the decision whether to employ the person."

LaMonica said one of the persons was rejected because it was discovered that he had been charged with a felony for shoplifting. He said the other negative reports concerned such things as alcoholism or bad personal habits.

Iowa Coach Considered to Replace Beall

WACO, Tex. (AP) — Bill Beall has departed quietly as head football coach at Baylor and the Bear board of directors has started sifting through possible replacements—including Iowa State head coach Johnny Majors.

Beall announced following Baylor's 23-0 loss to Rice Saturday that he would not return as Baylor's head coach next season, after winning only three of the 31 games during his three-year stint. He had two years remaining on his contract.

Baylor Athletic Director Bill Patterson released a statement at the game saying Beall's contract had been terminated by mutual agreement.

suade individuals and groups within both the public and private sectors to do likewise.

The political clout of the conference, representing 20 million Americans over 65, is apparent from the tentative list of officials the White House is sending to speak. It includes Labor Secretary J.D. Hodgson, Transportation Secretary John Volpe, HEW Secretary Elliot L. Richardson and Housing and Urban Development Secretary George Romney, as well as presidential advisers John Ehrlichman, Leonard Garment and Virginia Knauer.

Says Hijacker Told of Killing Trooper

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A stewardess from a Trans World Airlines jetliner hijacked to Cuba says one of the three men who commandeered the plane admitted killing a New Mexico state trooper.

"The smallest one, his name was Michael but had been changed to the African name Mahcha, said he killed the officer," stewardess Ann Harrell said after she and five other crew members of the Boeing 727 returned to Miami from Havana Sunday.

The FBI identified the three black hijackers as the same trio charged with gunning down trooper Robert Rosenbloom when he made a routine stop of their vehicle Nov. 8 near Albuquerque, N.M.

The FBI identified them as Michael R. Finney, 20, of San Francisco and Berkeley, Calif.; Ralph L. Goodwin, 24, of Berkeley; and Charles Hill, 21, no hometown.

The pilot of the hijacked flight, Capt. John McGhee, said he feared "someone was going to die" when the three young men stormed aboard the plane as it was boarding passengers at Albuquerque early Saturday.

"These men boarded in a violent, agitated manner and were obviously ready to commit murder," McGhee said after bringing the plane back from an overnight stay at Havana.

Once the plane was airborne from Albuquerque, stewardess Betty Canbre said, she lied at knife-point to convince "their leader that this airplane couldn't fly all the way to Africa."

She said she told him she'd been to Cuba twice and knew hijackers would be treated nicely by the island's Communist regime.

"I lied," she admitted. McGhee said he then convinced the hijackers that he needed a refueling stop.
